Rev Dave Aldridge - Senior Pastor, Bethany

Presbyterian Church: Chaplain RRM, Rockford IL.

The Genesis Process is the "secret sauce" of transformation that the Lord is doing across the country. I've had a front row seat witnessing what God is doing taking lives in need of repair and renewal, and breathing life into their souls! At last, Genesis is making its way to the local church where it can really get some traction. I highly recommend Genesis for your church.

Based on the Genesis Process for Change Groups book,

Genesis means a new beginning.

Greg Cooney – Program Director

Rockford Rescue Mission, Rockford IL

The Genesis Process explores how individuals' false beliefs fuel their destructive life behaviors and prevent them from being successful in recovery. Through the Genesis Process our program participants are equipped with the knowledge of how addiction affects their brains, the ability to identify a potential relapse, and the opportunity to utilize proven strategies to maintain freedom from the negative behaviors that have dominated their lives.

Dan Sergeant, Senior Pastor

New Hope Fellowship, Rochelle IL

Learning about the Genesis Process was not only helpful for me as a pastor in working with others, but it shed a lot of light on why I do some of the things I do. All of us look for ways to avoid pain, but you have to hurt in order to heal. We need scripture oriented training like this, so that those in the church can stop hiding and start healing.

Personal Healing & Change Seminar

- For those who have struggled with painful personal problems or self-destructive behaviors such as chemicals, sex, food, work, anxiety, relationships, etc.
- For those in helping ministries and professions looking for effective tools to help family members and others
- For those who want to make both people and churches safe for "hurting people"
- For those who need Biblically sound tools to help those who want to change to be able to change

What You Will Learn

- Understand the mystery of the heart and what drives addictions and "why we do the things we don't want to do." (Romans 7:15)
- The latest research on the brain and how it explains why we are so self-destructive, along with what it takes to change
- The subconscious fears and needs of both men and woman that can sabotage success and relationships
- The use of Genesis tools for a life of personal growth and spiritual change
- How to help others stuck in self-destructive behaviors and relationships
- How to start and lead a "Change Group" for both personal growth and ministry

ABOUT THE SEMINAR PRESENTER

Dean Perry, CADC,
Master of Divinity,
Genesis Associate, has successfully helped hundreds of people find healing from addictions using the Genesis Process since 2001. After serving in the US Air Force as a research engineer, he spent 17 years as a pastor of a local church working with teenagers, families, and people in crisis. In 2000 he began working with the homeless and addicted as a case manager and Genesis counselor at the Portland Rescue Mission, in Portland, Oregon. In 2006 Dean moved to Devon, UK where he created a full program based on Genesis, while serving as Program Manager for Gilead Foundations' men and women's residential recovery program. In 2008 Michael Dye, author of the Genesis Process, invited Dean to join him as a Genesis trainer and program consultant, specializing in residential program development. Besides working with Mike, he has directed programs at missions in Everett, WA and Las Vegas, NV. He is the author of the Genesis Residential Program Manual, the Mystery of Addiction recovery class, and currently works as a full-time consultant advising the leadership of new and existing programs. He continues to travel and train counselors and programs in the Genesis process throughout the USA and overseas.
